Except First, I want to thank Kathy Bennett for providing me with this book so I may bring you this review. Innovative explorations of cricket, aquatics, judo, golf, and Australian Rules football, as well as a detailed investigation of the Australian print media, are Seeking Authenticity in Place loosely framed in the context of widespread debates about how, when and why sporting identities are constructed. Right now no plans at the moment, but I said that about earlier works too that I continued on.
